→ Announcing Alumni Programming!

Leadership Santa Fe is excited to announce new programs for alumni. This year our first workshop for alumni will take place on Friday, September 24, from 10am-4pm at Christus St. Vincent Regional Medical Center. Lunch is included in the $50 cost. Alumni are asked to register in advance by contacting Lucy at 505-204-8046, or by sending an email to info@leadershipsantafe.org.

The topic for the graduate session will be MOTIVATION and will cover the following:

- What motivates us and others
- How can leaders work with others for high performance satisfaction
- The latest scientific research on motivation
- How to motivate people for today's complex challenges
- The relationship between autonomy, mastery, purpose and motivation
- Techniques for putting autonomy, mastery and purpose into action

The session will be partly based on Daniel Pink's new book: Drive. Participants will need to read this book.

The session will be facilitated by David Markwardt, our resident, award-winning leadership skills trainer.

We will be scheduling more workshops throughout the year and look forward to keeping you informed.

→ David Markwardt Wins Distinguished Leadership Award 2010

The 2010 Distinguished Leadership Award (voted on by the graduating class) honors LSF alumnus David Markwardt, MSOD, MFA, who is a published poet, consultant, facilitator and leadership professional with Teamwork in Action at Santa Fe Community College, The Community and Coalition Leadership Institute, and Leadership Santa Fe. David says, "Working with the Class of 2010 was a genuine pleasure. Such smart people. So committed to personal growth and making a difference in Santa Fe. Although I was the leadership skills trainer, I was the lucky one and am grateful for the experience."

Thank you for your interest in excellence in Santa Fe leadership. Keep in touch!

Sincerely,

Lucy River
