Welcome to the second edition of our e-newsletter. Please take a moment to read this note from two alumni:

To Friends of Leadership Santa Fe: As members of the recent graduating class, and of the LSF Governing Committee, we are grateful for the chance to make lasting connections with people like you, who make our community a vibrant, caring and diverse place to live and work. You are part of the reason Leadership Santa Fe succeeds in shaping the future of Santa Fe. In recent years, LSF has emerged as a model leadership program. Much has been accomplished on a budget of only $55,000 a year:

- More than 50 policy-makers and experts engaged the participants in conversations relating to economic development, youth and education, health, non-profits and government
- 24 community leaders graduated from Class of 2010, having undergone extensive personal leadership development and civic awareness training

We are asking alumni, friends and community members to invest in quality leadership in Santa Fe. Your tax-deductible contribution makes a difference. Please join us in raising our $50,000 fundraising goal this year. We are already half-way there! Click here to make a secure online donation to Leadership Santa Fe today!

Thank you!

Alumni Opportunity

LSF Alumni are invited to attend portions of five civic awareness sessions this year, held as part of the Class of 2011 program. We have invited fifty community leaders to visit and address the class. These sessions will be moderated by Brian Byrnes and focus on different hot topics relating to our community. Please email us for agenda details and to RSVP for certain panels or speakers.

Testimonial

"As a graduating member of the most recent class, I highly recommend Leadership Santa Fe, particularly to those who want to learn more about the inner-workings of Santa Fe, or anyone who wants to get to know fellow professionals and improve leadership skills. In short, it rocked."
- Todd Lovato, Director, Media and Public Relations, Santa Fe Community College, Class of 2010

pm, will be on MOTIVATION and will be partly based on Daniel Pink's book, Drive. This book is available from most bookstores.

If you haven't yet decided to attend, perhaps the following short talk by Pink will MOTIVATE you! Please follow the link below and then scroll to the 9th bullet, titled "Daniel Pink: The Surprising Science on Motivation." You can contact David Markwardt (session instructor) by email if you have specific questions about content.

Send an email to Lucy to reserve a spot in the class. To register, mail a check for $50 (includes lunch, courtesy of Christus St. Vincent Regional Medical Center) to Leadership Santa Fe, PO Box 9444, Santa Fe, NM 87504.

→ LSF in Demand: Members of the Leadership Team invited to speak!

Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce President and CEO, Simon Brackley, will be speaking about the Leadership Santa Fe program and its management model at the 2011 Western Association of Chamber Executives (WACE) in Long Beach, CA, in February 2011. The WACE conference brings together hundreds of chamber professionals each year to learn about best practices and trends in the chamber profession.

Lucy River, Leadership Santa Fe Program Director will speak on how to "Rock Your Leadership" at the WOMEN ROCK event taking place at the Santa Fe Convention Center on October 22 from 7:45 am - 12:00 pm. Admission is free and includes breakfast. To register, or for more information, contact 505-986-9635 or erin.pulsipher@prudential.com.

→ Kickin' it O'Keeffe Style: Class of 2011 Begins

The 27 participants in Class of 2011 attended their opening session at the Georgia O'Keeffe Museum Education Annex last Friday, and at the Santa Fe Chamber of Commerce on Saturday. The two-day session, entitled "Santa Fe: An Overview," was facilitated by Brian Byrnes, President and CEO of the Santa Fe Community Foundation, and our very own leadership skills consultant, David Markwardt, with a presentation by Mayor David Coss. The class also took part in a walking tour of downtown, and a reception at the O'Keeffe Cafe. Thanks to the Georgia O'Keeffe Museum for hosting!

Thank you for your interest in excellence in Santa Fe leadership.
Keep in touch!

Sincerely,

Lucy River
Program Director, Leadership Santa Fe

Our Mission is to connect people and prepare them as leaders to shape the future of Santa Fe.

We do this by giving civic-minded people a vehicle for their community-oriented energies, and providing access to community leaders and policy makers over the course of nine months.

In Leadership Santa Fe, YOU...

ACCESS Santa Fe's community leaders
ACCESS policy makers and key players
ACCESS our diverse community
ACCESS lasting connections
ACCESS your vision for Santa Fe
ACCESS THE LEADER IN YOU!
